

I'm concerned that we could be in violation if some one requests us to fax something to them over the phone. Think of the enormous amount of wasted business time required to request everything in writing!

These new regulations go overboard in an attempt at protecting businesses from unwanted faxes. Why not a "National Don't Fax sign-up list similar to the new Don't Call list?"